ABOUT THE ADVERTISED POSITION AND APPLICATION PROCESS

THE POSITION DESCRIPTION

The Position Description is attached and should be read carefully as it details the requirements, duties and selection criteria for the position.

YOUR APPLICATION

A separate application must be submitted for each vacancy advertised. The application is to include the following:

- a) a completed Job Application Form.
- b) your responses to the SELECTION CRITERIA of no more than five (5) pages for all responses.
- c) your resume / curriculum vitae including the names, positions and telephone numbers of three referees who can comment on your competency regarding the selection criteria. Referees will only be contacted after an interview.
- d) Copies of relevant tertiary qualifications relevant to this position.
- e) Copy of evidence of right to work in Australia (E.G. Australian Passport, permanent residency or working visa) or make available at interview.

In your responses, please provide examples that provide evidence that you have the relevant knowledge, skill or ability to fulfil this role. If you only state that you meet the selection criteria without demonstrating how you meet it and your competencies, it is unlikely that you will be short-listed for an interview.

SHORT-LISTING PROCESS

As stated above, initial short-listing is based on your written responses and your resume.

Short-listing will occur within one week of the closing date and shortlisted applicants will be contacted for an interview during this week. Please refer to dates on page 4.

If you have not been short-listed you will be advised of this in writing following the finalisation of the selection process.

INTERVIEW PROCESS

Shortlisted applicants will be invited to attend an interview with the selection panel.

The selection panel will ask you questions relevant to the selection criteria and allow you to expand on your written submission. Each applicant will be asked the same questions and you may be provided with a copy of these questions fifteen minutes prior to your interview. A time limit will be set for the interview session to determine the interviewee's ability in time management.

Interview questions will be aimed at testing your knowledge and skills and may include scenarios. You should answer each question fully and succinctly to demonstrate your ability to take on this role. Time will be allocated prior to the end of the interview for you to ask the panel questions about the role or the organisation.

You are welcome to bring samples of your work or other documents to share with the panel, which will assist in demonstrating your skills and experience.

REFERREE CHECKS

Referee checks are used to supplement the final selection decision. It is the responsibility of your referee to provide honest feedback about your knowledge, skills and abilities relevant to the selection criteria for the position.

At least one referee should be your most recent supervisor. If you are not currently in the workforce your referee should at least be in a position to comment on your abilities as they relate to the selection criteria.

If you have any concerns about the reference checking process, please raise them during your interview.

SELECTION

If you are selected for the position you will be contacted by telephone and offered the position. Should you accept, a formal written offer of employment will be forwarded to you including information detailing the terms and conditions of employment.

If you are not selected following interview, you will be advised of this in writing and advised that post selection feedback is available should you request it.
